1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 13-17, and 21-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Shannon.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 3-7, 18, 20 and 25-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shannon in view of Minnick. Shannon teaches the use of detonating cord containing PETN with silicone oil in the composition. Minnick teaches the sensitizing of detonating cords through the incorporation of microballoons into the detonating material. It would be obvious to an artisan desiring to sensitize the cord of Shannon to include the balloons of Minnick therein.

5. Claims 8-12 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shannon in view of Jones. Jones, newly cited, teaches the use of detonating cord that can be successfully used containing various materials, including PETN and ammonium nitrate. It would be obvious to one skilled in the art desiring to adjust the detonation sensitivity of the cord of Shannon to include some of a material with different properties such as the ammonium nitrate of Jones in the overall composition.

6. Claims 1, 2, 8-17, 19 and 21-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jones. See the exhaustive list of possibilities on columns 5 and 6.

7. Claims 3-7, 18, 20 and 25-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jones in view of Minnick. As mentioned previously, Minnick teaches the use of microballoons in a detonating cord composition. Jones teaches the use of many inert ingredients to be used in his cord. See column 6. It would be obvious to use the microballoons of Minnick in the composite also if sensitization of said composite were an issue.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
